the specification as corresponding to each claimed function must be set forth with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters.

Under 37 C.F.R. § 41.37 (c)(1) (v), a brief must include "a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal." 37 C.F.R. § 41.37 (c)(1) (v), further requires that "... each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately under the provisions of paragraph (c)(1)(vii) of this section, every means plus function and step plus function as permitted by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, must be identified Since Appellant's claims do not include any means plus function or step plus function claims, the Summary of claimed subject section of Appellant's brief should not include a concise explanation for the separately argued dependent claims.
